Huh?

Hazal, so this is where you were!

Who was that person?

You made him drink too much, Ranilna...

Alright alright.

I can't eat any more...

Let's head back to the inn for some hair of the dog that bit you!

Yeah!

Huh?! You're not done drinking?!

Haah... Tonight's dinner was great!

The food was good and we had lots of fun!

Indeed.

Oh, I just remembered...

Can you head back to the inn alone?

I need to get the materials in the cart.

Huh? Oh, the materials?

I'm being careful since back in Zetsuya we had bandits come after us.

They were disgusting.

"There's rumors about how nothing good comes from accepting the Rembrant company's requests."

Toa told me

Okay, I'll return later and we'll go to bed.

I will... Get changed and wait for you...

Understood,

and

We haven't heard anything from Tomoe in the past few days

we're sharing a room at this inn, that means we'll be sleeping in the same room tonight!

Hey, do you hear me?

Don't break or eat anything!

Yes

!!!

... If only that one wasn't there...

Well, there's two beds though.

What's wrong?

N- Nothing ..

What about you, Young Master? Why are you contacting me?

She sounds quite energetic.

We haven't heard from Tomoe in a while, so I wondered if there was an issue with our telepathic link.

I can hear you clearly.

I request grass.

So now you're gonna talk directly into my mind?!

While I'm gone, we can communicate telepathically.

He he he.

Telepathy sure is convenient though.

O-Of course.

Being able to talk across a distance reminds me of cell phones.

Thanks for your work.

This grass is nice.

Are you done changing? Can I head over there now?

I've brought back some stuff that seemed valuable.

I'm back.

If I brought back everything, the room would smell.

Nothing, don't worry about it.

What are those?

Sell foans?

Maybe Ema has heard from her.

Tomorrow we're heading to the other dimension to hear a report. I had tasked Tomoe with investigating that place.

Welcome back!

I was so charmed by him that...

Ah!

It's been a while since I last slept in a bed.

Yawn

Oh, you're gonna sleep there?

I'll take this bed then.

We'll head to the guild after that.

Good night.

What?! We aren't going to do anything?!

He's asleep.

Morning, Mio. Did you sleep well?

I should have destroyed that bed.

... I knew

Let's go.

I can make stable mist gates now.

Look,

Huh? I can't say I really care...

Just pick whatever helps you sleep.

Young Master, do you prefer more sensual sleep-wear?

We've safely reached Tsilge.

Young Master and madam Mio! Welcome back!

It's been a while, Ema.

I've been talking like that outside.

By the way, Young Master,

why are you speaking so politely?

I am sure it was a long and tiring journey.

I'm gonna start doing business out there,

so I figured it's best to talk like this.

And I'm more comfortable with this.

Young Master

ゴゴゴゴゴ

Yes !?

びくっ

ゴゴ

I am sure you have your reasons outside.

However, speaking to us like that here is a problem.

As the one that rules over us, you must be more resolute!

ハッ

O-Okay, I'll be-

... I will take that into consideration.

Please do.

That is for the best.

Ema has suddenly become really dependable...

I'll give you the report as we walk.

First is the houses.

As we've previously reported, the land for houses has been allocated, and the houses didn't seem to be damaged after madam Tomoe moved them.

Yeah, the wasteland is a nasty place that can go from scorching hot to freezing cold.

Cold

Hot

so we intend to rebuild the houses to better suit the environ-ment.

Wasteland

However, this area is unlike the wasteland we used to reside in,

Special area

It's amazing I survived out there.

We orc have been working with the mistio lizardmen to build houses and haven't run into any problems.

The alkeys that madam Mio brought here seem to have built their homes in the forest and mountain.

They are also in charge of making equipment,

as well as testing out all of your equipment.

Next is the duties of the various races. The dwarves are constructing, repairing, and remodeling buildings.

How reliable.

There's still much we don't know about the area they live in, so it's a great help.

I've gotten a report from them,

The alkeys are...

I will bring up their findings with the young master later.

they've been surveying the area and documenting the flora and fauna.

in the settlements and are cultivating arable land.

We've left them in charge of materials and food.

The mistio lizardmen serve as guards

Thank you for your generous words,

I'm sure they'll be thrilled.

Maybe I'll go and thank them for it later.

I just hope they don't overextend themselves ...

Oh, they're good at cultivating land and managing supplies as well?

Thanks to how they're managing things, everything is progressing smoothly.

What the ...

Lastly, we orcs have been prioritizing the construction of your mansion, Young Master.

It's massive !!!

No, that's not the reason.

Are you guys building a castle?!

Wait, don't tell that Tomoe had something to do with this!

Isn't it too big for just three people?!

Is that just the foundation?

In that case, it's fine.

It's convenient for them to maintain it themselves while also using it as a gathering place.

Oh, that's why. We've been outside for all this time after all.

We plan on having the mansion also function as an assembly hall.

I'd prefer if my room wasn't too big though ...

Oh, it's the young master! It's been a while.

Aren't the working hours a bit messed up?

It's kind of like a sweatshop.

a mere few hundred people are handling construction and remodeling, managing supplies, surveying the land, guarding the settlement, and cultivating the land.

Still, based on the reports,

Everything is small in scale,

so there are no problems at the moment.

And the cultivation of new land is still in an experimental stage.

Experi-mental?

I had heard that much of the flora and fauna and the climate here are similar to what you are familiar with, Young Master.

The procedures we are using are based on what we found in the storage medium that madam Tomoe created containing your memories.

My memories ...

Speaking of that, a good chunk of essentials for developing the area can be referenced from my memories...

Though there is some stuff I wouldn't want seen, like this or that...

Young Master's memories ...

Though there is a problem with that ...

Huh? Are there some odd memories mixed in there?!

Hm? No,

it's just that madam Tomoe was the only one who could understand and translate the words in those memories.

We would be grateful for that.

I'll try to think of something, it's not like Tomoe and I can always be here.

which is why progress is so slow.

Let's avoid it just in case.

Dunno, it hasn't been translated.

What's this?

With madam Tomoe absent, we can't understand anything,

Wait, how did she even learn Japanese?

I see, only Tomoe and I can understand Japanese after all.

this place would occasionally expand even before that.

While new mountains and forests appeared after I formed the contract with Mio,

Oh, I recall asking her for that before she went on her journey.

Next is the report from madam Tomoe about the growth of this dimension.

I heard from Tomoe that the expansion had stopped.

She told me telepathically.

There is also the matter of the climate, which has frequently been changing as of late.

It's fairly warm right now, but...

Well, it's convenient in that constant expansion is also a problem, but not knowing the reason is just as trouble-some.

This place makes no sense.

Yes, it's been like this for a while.

This is the longest it's been without any expansion.

Ah! There's still some left in the shade!

Seriously?!

Snow !?

It just randomly changes from hot to cold.

We even had snow recently.

The children quite enjoyed it.

The way it just randomly changes is quite troubling.

For the mistia lizardmen especially.

I see ...

We better make some equipment to help them.

We're used to the wasteland getting cold.

No, seasons are part of a fixed cycle.

Actual snow

It's cold.

It can randomly change in a single day like that.

Is this perhaps that "seasons" thing you had previously mentioned?

It doesn't taste like anything...

Oh, did you start on the "mirage city" thing that I left to Tomoe?

That's all I have to report. Is there anything else you would like to know?

It's cold.

Here.

We need to figure out what's causing the expansion and weather changes.

Then I'll explain now what this "mirage city (provisional name)" is!

So I didn't explain it well enough?

The "mirage city"...

We just recently began, but I don't understand the purpose of it...

me being the only one who sells these things will just cause suspicion and other problems.

It's really good!

And even if they do,

but regardless of how great something is, no one will buy it if they don't understand its value.

Why are you the only one that sells them?

Where'd you get this?

What is that weird thing? I've never seen one before.

Would you like to buy one?

I intend to go around selling goods from this place, while also distributing items in the outside world.

That way we can maintain a good image

Yep, looks like we both got lucky.

You also found it?

welcomed, given some items, and then sent back.

Using some random excuse like "I d like to thank you for teaching me the common tongue"

There-fore

adventurers will randomly be brought here,

Yes,

some of the alkeys that have learned the common tongue have begun taking part as well.

Are you alternating which race interacts with the adventurers?

which will make it easier for us to sell it

...

Hopefully.

If the rumors of the "mirage city" spread, our goods will become more popular, and we orcs have been sharing some of our magic knowledge with them...

We have been giving them food, the lizardmen's decorations, the dwarves' equipment, the alkeys' medicines,

I'd like to keep knowledge of the city itself vague.

It'll be convenient if they think that they're visiting a different town because of that.

Very well...

That's just fine, just increase the quality as necessary.

They're all around the level of daily necessities, but...

It just doesn't hold any meaning.

I guess we're just giving them stuff of that nature.

In my world that would probably be stuff like accessories, energy drinks, and stationeries, I guess.

Daily neces-sities ...

welcoming random adventurers that are exhausted from being in the wasteland.

Hmm. I guess she just sees it as Well, just continue following Tomoe's orders.

She left a few days ago saying that she'll check on what's going on with this dimension, and we haven't heard from her since then...

She hasn't been in contact with you either, Young Master?!

Though we haven't heard from her in a few days, has she contacted you in that time?

She hasn't even contacted Ema?

What the hell is she doing?

It'd be nice if she at least figured out what was the cause of the stuff happening here...

By the way,

Based on what I've been seeing here...

it seems those guys need to talk to you about something.

I've heard what I needed to know, so you can go and deal with that.

Thank you,

I will do just that then.

If anything happens, I will be sure to inform you.

Ema sure is capable,

she's been so helpful.

Say, Mio, do you understand Japanese?

No, I have no knowledge of such a thing.

We have formed a contract, so I need to know it to understand my own master.

Huh? How?!

This "japanese" language ...

If that's the case, then I do know it.

But how does Mio know it?

Figures, it's the language from my home country after all.

In that case, I need you to stay here today and help them with translating.

The young master's memories ?!

Y- Yes!

They're having trouble.

You never asked me.

So that's why Tomoe understood it! Why didn't she tell me?!

When you form a contract, you form a covenant.

In the case of "control", you must learn your master's language.

うおおおお…

ドドドド

Huh? What's raising all that dust?!

!? びくっ

Young Master !!

A sudden invitation! It's both exciting and worrying.....!?

There's no need to worry about me,

I created equip-ment to help me walk!

Before

After

Erd?! Are you alright? What happened to your cane?

It has been a while, Young Master!

do you have time? There is something

I would like to show to you and madam Mio!

More impor-tantly, Young Master,

Dwarves will be dwarves, regardless of age...

I feel young again.

Ha ha ha!

I'm not retired just yet!

I can't just leave all the work to the young-sters!

He sure is fired up...

Just what does he wanna show us?

はははは

They can wait! This is an urgent matter!

Now let us hurry!

Huh?

I was gonna go visit the Alkeys just now...
